gave a straight shot into the goal. The opponent's goalkeeper guessed the direction, but he failed to save a shot struck at such close range. One goal was scored. Most of the spectators jumped up and cheered.

After that our boys had to work quite hard to keep the ball out off our goal. The opponents played well, they had the ball most of the time and had a lot of opportunities to make a goal. Unluckily, they were not successful.

One minute before the end of the match, our captain cut the pass of an opponent's attacker. He passed the ball through 3 opponents and gave a kick straight into the goal. The goalkeeper slipped and fell. So, he couldn't touch the ball. One more goal was made. All the stadium burst into applause.
