2. Read the passage and answer the questions.

Watching television is an interesting and fun activity. The first television broadcast in Australia was in 1956. Back then, the pictures on a TV were black and white only. Television has changed a lot since then.

There are several channels and they show different TV programmes. In Western Australia, the main channels are ABC, Seven, Nine, Ten, and SBS. TV guides tell us what programmes are showing on which channel, and at what time on a day.

Many programmes on television are episodes. They are part of a series. These episodes usually last for either 30 minutes or a full hour. At the weekend there are interesting films. You can watch them instead of going to the cinema.

1. When was the first Australian TV broadcast?

2. How were the pictures on a TV then?

3. List any three TV channels in Western Australia.

4. Where can you find out the time of your favourite TV show?

5. How long do episodes on TV usually last for?

III. WRITING

1. For each question, complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first. Use the word in brackets. You CANNOT change the form of the word given. Write NO MORE THAN THREE WORDS.

1. Peter hasn't been to Viet Nam.

Peter _____ to Viet Nam. (NEVER)

2. Sydney is not as hot as Rio de Janeiro.

Rio de Janeiro is _____ Sydney. (HOTTER)

3. New York is larger than São Paulo. Tokyo is larger than New York.

Tokyo is _____ among three cities. (LARGEST)

4. Eiffel Tower has more visitors than any other landmarks in the world.

Eiffel Tower is _____ landmark in the world. (MOST)

5. Is this your first time in Paris?

Have _____ to Paris before? (BEEN)

2. Write a short paragraph (60-80 words) about your favourite TV programme.

You should use the cues given:

- Name of the programme
- Kind of the programme

- Time of the programme
- Reasons why you like it

My dream house is the most different house. It will look like a glass violin and is equipped with music. The house will have more than 200 rooms so that all my family and classmates can live there. All the rooms in the house will have weather machines. There will be all four seasons in my house to suit the taste of my beloved. There will be two swimming pools: one for adults and one for kids. We can swim every day without having to wait for summer to come. The weather machines will take care of the weather. Ah, there will be balconies full of flowers, too. We can read books, newspapers in a flowery environment. That will be wonderful.

2. Listen to Tom talking about his dream house. Tick the things in his house. There are TWO things that will NOT be in his house. You will listen TWICE.

My dream home will be in a big forest. It would have a secret entrance with a lot of passwords. The first room would be made of solid diamond. There would be Mario posters everywhere. The living room will have a special diamond chair that has a full-body massager and a wireless TV. There will be a glass floor, with fish in the big tank. Then upstairs in my room I would have a special computer. But to get into the room you have to input a 10-digit password. Near my home there will be a giant beach with nice waves and it will never rain there.
