CRAZY SPORTSRoyal Soccer

Two soccer matches are held every year in a small village in England. The teams include everyone in the village. There are no specific rules. Just be careful not to kill anyone! We don't know when the game started.

Chess Boxing

This game is popular in Finland. You need to be both smart and strong, because players play chess and then box against each other. There are 11 rounds. Winning comes from either a checkmate or a knockout. This game was first seen in a 1991 movie.

Cheese Chase

This game is held in a small corner of the British Isles. It involves 20 competitors chasing a block of cheese down the hill. Whoever gets the cheese wins. The game is at least 200 years old.

Watching television is an interesting and fun activity. The first television broadcast in Australia was in 1956. Back then, the pictures on TV were black and white only.

Television

has changed a lot since then. There are several channels, and they show different TV programmes. In Western Australia, the main channels are ABC, Seven, Nine, Ten, and SBS.

TV guides tell us what programmes are shown on which channel, and at what time on a day.

Many programmes on television are episodes. They are parts of a series. These episodes usually last for either 30 minutes or a full hour. At the weekend, there are interesting films. You can watch them instead of going to the cinema.
